However, lightweight users may find free 1GB high-speed data attractive as you are free to use it with any app on your phone. When the plan was introduced, it looks like a direct response to Xpax's new #NoKelentong prepaid offer that comes with 10GB of Facebook data. For more data, both prepaid options offer the same UMI data add-ons. Triple data quota promotion has been extended until April 30, 2017 but this is applicable only for UMI 30 and UMI 50.
